

POLICY – Sexual Harassment

In recognising that sexual harassment in the workplace is unlawful; Krueger Shopfitters will strive towards providing a work environment free from sexual harassment and all forms of discrimination.

It is the policy of Krueger Shopfitters that all employees and subcontractors shall refrain from any unwelcome conduct, language or printed material of a sexual nature. All sexually explicit material is banned from site sheds, amenities and project offices.

The Managing Director shall nominate a person to be the sexual harassment officer responsible for handling sexual harassment complaints.

The alleged victim of sexual harassment should be informed of his/her rights to take action under the relevant state legislation. Assistance for such a complaint should be provided by the designated sexual harassment officer.

A copy of this OHS Policy shall be retained at all Krueger Shopfitters sites.
